MORE REGULAR INFANTRY

Total Additional Force Sent to the Border under New Orders is 7,000 Men.

"The outbreak in the Big Bend district of the Rio Grande has so far further emphasized the danger of United States against raids of this character."

In addition three regiments of reg-ular infantry were Tuesday ordered to the border. These regiments were the Thirtieth infantry, now at Plattsburg, N. Y.; the Third infantry, at Madison barracks, divided between Watertown and Oswego, N. Y.; the Twenty-first infantry, at Vancouver barracks; and two battalions of the Fourteenth infantry at Fort Lawton, near Seattle, Wash., and one at Spokane. Wash. kane, Wash.

the raid upon Glen Springs had been organized on the American side of the line, according to Mexican reports, he had telegraphed to General Funston that he might investigate. The national guardsmen are ordered out under the Dick law, authorizing their service anywhere in the United States, but not beyond the border. Under that law every man in the regiments who is physically able may be forced to serve. If service beyond the border was contemplated the regiments would be If service beyond the border was contemplated the regiments would be mustered into the federal army as volunteers and it would be optional with the men whether they would serve.

American employes at the Porto Rio de Boquillas mine, near Boquillas, on the Mexican side, and Dr. Homer Powers, of San Angelo, Tex., are captives in the hands of the Villa bandits that raided Glen Springs and Boquillas.

The eight Americans were taken into the interior of Coahnila but whether they were killed or are being held for ransom is not known.

EGCAPE

Of Americans Captured by the Mexican Bandits is Reported in Private Message.

Some of the purposes and objects which I had to view before my election of this office have been accomplished. We now have in effect in West Virginia, one of the best live stock sanitary laws in America, and under its provision several hundred outbreaks of catagious or infectious diseases among our domestic animals have been controlled and eradication of diseases all hundred outbreaks of catagious or infectious diseases among our statute book, a splendid crop pest law for the control and eradication of diseases and insects affecting our fruit trees and nursery stock. This is being enforced to the full extent of the means available for that purpose. The new sade inspection law is having a good effect on the sale of agricultural seeds; although no funds are available for its enforcement. The state department has exerted every possible effort for the advertisement of the natural resources and agricultural possiblity trees and nursery stock. This is being enforced to the full extent of the means available for that purpose. The new sage received here Tuesday says the seven American employes of the Portion Rolling of work undertaken by this department, cannot be properly presented in the decting me to the important and responsible office of commissioner of agricultural stand willingness of the office force to work and accomplished by the ability and willingness of the office force to work and accomplished to year.

worked conscientiously to make successful the present administration, of which I am a part.

My work as a member of the board of public works has in the most part been pleasant, and agreeable, but I have at no time permitted any factional differences to influence my acti m endeavoring at all times to act honestly and honorably with all corporations and men both great and small.

I believe in the fundamental principles of the Republican party, and have always worked to the end that peace and harmony might prevail. I have delayed making any announcement as a candidate to succeed myself for two reasons: my work in the state department of agriculture occupies my entire diate, asking your support, both in the primary election on June 6 is rapidly approaching, and it becomes necessary that I again become a candidate, asking your support, both in the primary and general election, and trust that my action in the past will merit your confidence.

I am a candidate for the Republican nomination for the office of commissioner of agriculture, and will appreciate your support and will at all times act honestly for the bear interests of the whole people.
